

Fr. Dave Heney

Fr. Dave Heney grew up in Thousand Oaks, CA, and was ordained a parish priest for the Archdiocese of Los Angeles in 1978. In 1991 he received a Masters degree in Marriage, Family, and Child Counseling from the University of Southern California.

He is the author of “Motivating Your Parish to Change”; a book on spiritual leadership from Resource Publications. His latest book on modern moral issues is titled, Don't Tell Me What to Do!” and was published by Paulist Press in 2002.

He also serves on the Governing Board of Behavioral Health Center Psychiatric Hospital, in Alhambra. For ten years he served on the LA County BAR Association's Committee on Fair Judicial Elections Practices. For 2 ½ years he was the Development Director for St. John's Seminary in Camarillo. He now serves as the Pastor of St. Paschal Baylon church in Thousand Oaks, CA.

St. Paschal Baylon Parish is a Catholic community of about 6000 families and is located in the City of Thousand Oaks, about 15 miles west of the San Fernando Valley. St. Paschal's has over 350 students in its elementary school and over 600 students in religious education. Our parish is also active in the City of Thousand Oaks and is a partner in a number of community outreach projects.
